Justice Feitner Promptly Discharged the Saloon-Keeper.

George Schmitt, a saloon-keeper at 628 East Seventeenth street, was arraigned in Yorkville Court this morning, charged by Detective Benham with Intoxication selling liquor without a license, selling liquor to minors and assault. After hearing the evidence, Justice Feitner promptly discharged blm. Detective Benham, of the East Twenty-second street station, testified that he went into Schnutt's saloon yesterday afternoon to see if he had had his license renewed.

When Benham asked him civilly by anything had been done Schmitt told him that if he wanted any information he'd best go to the brewery and find out there. Then Schmitt took a couple of pitchers of beer to a factory next door. Benham waited until he returned.
"Still here, are you?" said Schmitt to the detective. "If you don't get out of this place quick. I'll throw you out. I know what you are here for-you're after Then, Benham says, he added a few insulting phrases.
